1. Yes. Our participation in the U.N. is to the benefit of our national security and to international security as well.
2. Yes. I support paying our U.N. dues on time and in full. We must also work to pay back our debt; this is an issue of fiscal responsibility.
3. Yes; Yes. I am a signatory of the Responsible Plan for withdrawal from Iraq (www.responsibleplan.com), which outlines diplomatic efforts as our major tool in rebuilding Iraq. I believe the United Nations is crucial to fulfilling this objective, as it is important to internationalize this process.
4. Yes. I believe this should be a coordinated international effort.
5. Yes. I am a supporter of aggressive action in response to climate change, and the U.N. is the appropriate venue for the development of that response.
6. Yes.
7. Yes. Sudan is an excellent example of a situation in which U.N. security forces (coupled, in this case, with the African Union) are necessary for international peacekeeping.

Yes. It is our responsibility as a member nation and international leader to pay proper dues to the U.N., especially for the purpose of peacekeeping operations.
8. Yes.
9. Yes. Unquestionably, we must work together for the achievement of these important goals in our joint effort to eradicate poverty.
