- 1) Children's Health – The United Nations Foundation, Inc. (UNF) is committed to helping United Nations efforts to improve the health and welfare of children around the world. In particular, UNF assists the United Nations in its efforts to achieve the goals developed at the World Summit for Children and stated in the Convention on the Rights of the Child. The UNF's fundamental children's health priorities include efforts to reduce child mortality, eradicate polio, and prevent tobacco use among children.
- 2) Women and Population – The foundation supports the goals and action plans established at the International Conference on Population and Development and the Fourth World Conference on Women. UNF is placing a special emphasis on supporting United Nations' efforts to improve the lives of adolescent girls and to improve the quality of reproductive health services throughout the world.
- 3) Environmental Protection – The United Nations Foundation, Inc. targets its environmental efforts in two areas: sustainable energy/climate change and ecosystem conservation/biological diversity. Within these areas, the foundation works with the United Nations and outside partners on innovative means of implementing relevant aspects of United Nations conferences and conventions, including the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and the Convention on Biological Diversity. Support for sustainable energy/climate change initiatives will focus on market mechanisms and sustainable energy technologies. The UNF's support of ecosystem conservation/biological diversity emphasizes effective conservation and environmentally sound management of priority ecosystems.
- 4) Selected Causes – In addition to our three primary areas of focus, the United Nations Foundation, Inc. is committed to supporting a variety of United Nations humanitarian causes, including human rights, efforts to eradicate landmines, and other issues associated with conflict. UNF provides selective assistance to support the United Nation's humanitarian initiatives in an effort to positively impact people throughout the world.

United Nations Foundation, Inc.
Form 990, Schedule A, Part III, Question 4b, Grantmaking Procedures
For the year ended December 31, 1999

Statement 13

The United Nations Foundation, Inc. (UNF) does not accept unsolicited proposals. UNF works collaboratively with the United Nations in program development. UNF grants to United Nations agencies are intended to support a variety of United Nations causes consistent with the Secretary-General's priorities, UNF criteria and UNF programmatic priorities. UNF supports UN agencies, funds and programmes exclusively, but strongly encourages the United Nations system to integrate civil society and the private sector into project proposals.

Together with the United Nations Fund for International Partnerships (UNFIP), UNF pursues funding opportunities which support the United Nations Agenda for Development and the goals set at recent United Nations global conferences. Projects consistent with national development goals and priorities as well as efforts aimed at improving among United Nations agencies, funds and programs are encouraged. UNF is also working collaboratively with selected United Nations agencies to improve institutional capacity and effectiveness in a manner consonant with the Secretary-General's reform program.
