Report of Independent Auditors

To the Board of Directors of
United Nations Foundation, Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements of financial position and the related statements of activities and changes in nets assets, and cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of United Nations Foundation, Inc. (the "Foundation"), at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the changes in its nets assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic 2005 and 2004 financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedules of functional expenses for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements of the Foundation. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

UNITED NATIONS FOUNDATION, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

1. Description of the Organization

In March 1998, R.E. (Ted) Turner established the United Nations Foundation, Inc. (“UNF”) and its sister organization, Better World Fund, Inc. (“BWF”), to support the efforts of the United Nations (“UN”). UNF’s mission is to promote a more peaceful, prosperous, and just world – through support of the United Nations and its Charter, with special emphasis on the UN’s work on behalf of economic, social, environmental and humanitarian causes. UNF focuses on four main programs: 1) women and population, 2) the environment, 3) children’s health, and 4) peace, security and human rights.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Contributions

UNF recognizes contributions and unconditional promises to give as revenue in the period received or promised, whichever is earlier. All contributions are considered to be unrestricted unless specifically restricted by the donor. Contributions are reported as temporarily restricted if they are received with donor stipulations that limit their use or are subject to time restrictions. A donor restriction expires when a purpose restriction is accomplished or a stipulated time restriction ends. Upon expiration, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets in the statement of activities and changes in net assets as net assets released from restrictions.

Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions stipulated by the donor are substantially met. A conditional promise to give is considered unconditional if the possibility that the condition will not be met is remote.

Unconditional promises to give expected to be received within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be received in future years are recorded at the present value of their estimated future cash flows using discount rates approximating the rate of return on U.S. government securities with similar maturities.

Grants

UNF makes grants in support of four program priorities established by the board of directors. The amount for which UNF is obligated is recorded when the project has been unconditionally approved. Grants contingent upon third party funding or other conditions are recognized as the conditions are met.

Grants payable within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Grants payable in future years are recorded at the present value of their estimated future cash flows using discount rates approximating the rate of return on U.S. government securities with similar maturities.

Donated services

UNITED NATIONS FOUNDATION, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

UNF recognizes donations of services received if such services (a) create or enhance non-financial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. These donated services are recorded at estimated fair value on the date the service is provided. UNF recorded contributed services of $12,958,626 and $34,872,173 for the years ending December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively, mostly related to donated media for the Apathy is Lethal campaign. These amounts are included in other contributions on the statement of activities and changes in net assets.

Interest income

Certain interest income earned by UN agencies and projects, resulting from funding provided by UNF, was made available for use to fulfill project payment requests during 2005 and 2004. This income is recorded as interest income at the time it is reported by UNFIP to UNF and is held as a receivable until it is utilized in meeting a specific payment request.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturities of three months or less. Cash equivalents consist of funds held in a money market account which are available for immediate withdrawal without penalty. Included in cash and cash equivalents is $9,180 and $393,884 for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively, that is held for others.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated using the half-year convention over the estimated useful lives ranging from three to seven years or the life of the lease. Land is recorded at fair value at the date of contribution.

Investments – securities

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market prices. There were no investments held as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Donated gifts of securities are recorded based on estimated fair value at the date the donation is received.

Income taxes

UNF has received a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that it is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as a public charity.

Concentration of credit risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject UNF to a concentration of credit risk, consist of demand deposits placed with financial institutions. At times such balances may be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limit, however, management believes the risk of loss in these situations to be minimal.

UNITED NATIONS FOUNDATION, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses, including donated services, during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Contributions Receivable

As of December 31, the expected future cash receipts from contributions receivable are as follows:

	2005	2004
Less than one year	$ 19,033,206	$ 16,638,936

Total unexpended grants, net	$ 39,952,769	$ 47,840,728

6. Leases

UNF leases office space under operating leases expiring at various dates through 2009. The office leases are subject to annual escalation amounts as set forth in the lease agreements. Rent expense of $911,438 and $885,201 was recognized for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, on a straight-line basis. The future minimum lease payments to be made and future lease receipts from tenants of these leases are as follows:

Year ending December 31,	Lease Payments To Be Made	Lease Payments To Be Received
2006	$ 1,008,891	$ 14,226
2007	545,534	-

Time restrictions	-	2,414,357
	$ 19,734,153	$ 9,095,055

8. Employee Benefits

Effective January 2, 2002, UNF established a 403(b) plan for all UNF employees, which replaced the former 401(k) plan. UNF provides a 150% match of all employee contributions up to 4% of the employee's salary, which results in a maximum employer contribution of 6% of the employee's salary. For the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, UNF paid benefits under this plan of $286,449 and $248,129, respectively. Payments were subject to a cost-sharing agreement with BWF, which is further described in Note 9.

9. Related Parties

Relationship with United Nations

On February 2, 1998, UNF and the United Nations entered into a Relationship Agreement whereby the United Nations and UNF agreed to work together to achieve the goals and objectives of the Charter of the United Nations through the implementation of innovative, forward-looking and proactive projects and activities that make contributions to the collective future and well-being of the planet. UNF will assist the United Nations by providing grants to the United Nations to assist in its goals and objectives, undertake fundraising efforts to support United Nations' projects and activities, and engage in or provide support to activities designed to increase public awareness and support for the United Nations. The United Nations set up the United Nations

Fund for International Partnerships (“UNFIP”), under the control of the Secretary General of the United Nations, to receive grants exclusively from UNF. UNFIP provides a central administrative vehicle within the United Nations for working with UNF to identify and select projects and activities, receive and distribute funds for such projects and activities, and monitor and report on the use of such funds. UNFIP is required to be administered in accordance with the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations. During 2005 and 2004, grants unconditionally approved to UNFIP and included in program services in the statement of activities and changes in net assets were $157,633,482 and $56,311,725, respectively. Included in the grants unconditionally approved to UNFIP during 2005 and 2004 are administrative and project fees of $2,675,400 and $2,675,400, respectively. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, unexpended grants of $39,887,861 and $40,118,716, respectively are committed to UNFIP.

Contribution

Gift income in the amount of $39,579,108 and $46,362,920 was received through the donation of cash and securities from Ted Turner, Chairman of UNF Board of Directors, for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Cost-sharing agreement

UNF incurs certain costs of operations which are shared by BWF, such as personnel, rent, travel, and other operating costs. UNF and BWF have a cost-sharing agreement whereby operating costs are shared based upon the relative portions of annual grant making, employee time incurred, or labor costs, depending on the type of expenditure. In 2005 and 2004, respectively, $472,685 and $989,646 of cost was allocated from UNF to BWF and was recorded in accounts receivable from affiliate. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the due from affiliate receivable was $12,285,682 and $12,318,530, respectively.
